

2013 Electronic Cigarette Buying Guide

by

This report is a guide on the E-Cig brands that match what a customer may want out of an E-Cigarette. Each person is different, and one person may want something different out of an E-Cigarette than others. Each brand has different features that may be more attractive to certain types of smokers.

Read the following statements to the left, if that sounds like you, then the brand/s directly to the right of it may be a good choice for you.

If you see the same brand/s reappearing as you review these statements, I assure you that that is the brand for you.

You have my personal guarantee that I have extensively used these brands, and in my experience this is an accurate representation of how these brands reflect in quality and value.

I care about cost. I want a brand that is not that expensive but very good. Cost of the initial kit should be low.	  V2 Cigs Bull Smoke
I don't care about cost. I have money to spend. I want the best possible brand with the most options, bells, and whistles.	 Green Smoke

Green Smoke

Green Smoke is a brand that has very rich flavors, and very good customer service. They are a bit expensive though, almost twice as much as the avg E-cig Kit, but they are one of the best.

V2 Cigs

V2 Cigs is an awesome brand that many agree is the best in the business. They have awesome quality and very low prices. Their exotic flavors like Chocolate and Cherry are not as potent as Green Smoke, but the normal tobacco flavors are incredible. They won both "Best of 2011" and "Best of 2012" Review Awards.

South Beach Smoke

South Beach Smoke is a decent brand, but some have said they have an inconsistency in their cartridge quality. Meaning, some cartridges taste different than others depending on when they are shipped. However, they do have a neat plan where they auto ship your cartridges so you do not have to remember to order them when you run out. Some don't like this, but some find it very convenient.

Vapor Couture

Vapor Couture is actually a brand made by V2 Cigs, so it has all the same great quality as V2 Cigs, but they have designed the batteries/accessories to be very classy and fashionable for female customers.

Bull Smoke

Bull Smoke is a very good brand known for having very strong cartridges. If you smoke unfiltered, Bull Smoke may be the only brand that will get you that extremely strong nicotine hit. Green Smoke also has some very strong cartridges available as of recent, but they don't quite top Bull Smokes Strength.
